

McDonogh Competitive Swim Camp

The McDonogh Competitive Swim Camp will take place in the Henry A. Rosenberg, Jr. Aquatic Center, featuring a brand new Olympic-size pool. The camp is designed for swimmers with either summer league experience or YMCA/USA swim team experience. Directed by McDonogh head varsity swim coach Scott Ward, the camp is designed to teach, drill, and train the individual fundamentals of competitive swimming. Specific drills will be taught to aid skill developments in all four of the competitive strokes along with instruction on starts and turns. Underwater videotaping will also be utilized in teaching swimmers. Fun games/competitions and relays will round out each day.
